

Call to Worship for National Youth Sunday 2010
by Kay Guyer

Leader: God of Creation, Your glow transforms our beings.

People: You breathe light into our lives, this day, this hour.

Leader: To the world, we are simple jars of clay.

People: To You, we are far more than meets the eye.

Leader: To the world, our power is insignificant.

People: To You, we are change makers, world shakers, healers of the earth.

All: God of all, awake us to the strength of Your mystical flame.
